9 WORLD CONGRESS
OF VETERINARY DERMATOLOGY
20-24 OCTOBER 2020

Australia – the destination we all dream about visiting...

Make that dream a reality.

Join us at the 9th World Congress of Veterinary Dermatology in the friendly, vibrant and cosmopolitan city of Sydney, one of the world's most beautiful natural harbours and gateway to the unique culture of Australia.

From practical tips for practice to cutting edge research with a multi stream program combining lectures, workshops and wet labs not to mention a unique and exciting social program, we are confident WCVD9 will be an inspiring and memorable experience.

The new purpose built Convention Centre in Darling Harbour is centrally located within the heart of the city, within easy walking distance of a range of hotels and accommodation, and restaurant options to suit every budget and taste, from elegant harbourside dining to bijou cafes and a diverse range of ethnic cuisines.

So many choices. The only one to make right now is to be at WCVD9 in Sydney from 20th–24th October 2020.

Take a few extra days to explore the city – from its iconic modern architecture to its historic colonial past; stroll on a golden sandy beach or bushwalk in a rugged country park.

Ready for a challenge? Climb the famous Sydney Harbour Bridge or learn to surf at Manly Beach.

Enjoy a leisurely tour of the Hunter Valley, tasting award winning Australian wines or marvel at the breathtaking splendour of the Blue Mountains.

Got a few more days? Why not dive on the Great Barrier Reef, or go crocodile spotting in the Daintree forest? Enjoy the nightlife of the Gold Coast, or the serenity of Uluru?
