THE EUROPEAN COLLEGE
OF
VETERINARY DERMATOLOGY

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

10 September 2011
EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF VETERINARY DERMATOLOGY

CONSTITUTION

10 September 2011

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Name and Structure

Article 1

Section 1.1
The name of the organisation shall be the European College of Veterinary Dermatology, hereafter referred to as the "College".

Section 1.2
The College shall have its domicile in Luxembourg. The office address may be change through the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Section 1.3
The College shall be a part of the general scheme for veterinary specialization in the European Union, as advised by the Advisory Committee for Veterinary Training (ACVT) of the European Union set up by the Council Decision 78/1028/EEC of 18 December 1978 and OJ No L 302 of 22 December 1978, in its report doc. III/F/5285/3/91., This scheme includes the European Board of Veterinary Specialization (EBVS), the European Coordinating Committee for Veterinary Training (ECCVT), and the Colleges of Specialities.

Duration

Article 2

Section 2.1
The College shall be established for an unlimited period.

Section 2.2
The College year shall run concurrently with the calendar year, with the exception of the first year which will run from the day on which the College was established (December 19, 1992) to December 31, 1993.

Objectives

Article 3

Section 3.1
The primary objectives of the College shall be to advance veterinary dermatology in Europe and increase the competence of those who practice in this field by:
- establishing guidelines for post-graduate education and experience prerequisite to becoming a specialist in the speciality of veterinary dermatology;
- examining and certifying veterinarians as specialists in veterinary dermatology to serve the public by providing expert care for animals with dermatological disease;
- encouraging research and other contributions to knowledge relating to the pathogenesis, diagnosis, therapy, prevention, and the control of diseases directly or indirectly affecting the skin of animals, and promoting communication and dissemination of this knowledge.

Section 3.2
The College is a non-profit-making organisation and does not pursue commercial interests;

Section 3.3
The financial means of the College may only be spent according to the constitution; Members or Officers of the College receive no payment from the funds of the College, except reimbursements;

Section 3.4
No-one may be favoured by expenditures or excessively high compensations which are not according to the purposes of the College.

Section 3.5
The language of the Constitution, Bylaws, correspondence, negotiations and examinations shall be English (GB).

Membership

Article 4

Section 4.1
The members of the College shall be the following:
(a) Founding Diplomates
(b) Diplomates
(c) Non-practising Diplomates
(d) Retired Diplomates
(e) Honorary Members

Section 4.2: Founding Diplomates shall be:
(a) four to six invited specialists as defined in the general scheme of veterinary specialization approved by the ACVT.
They will be invited by the European Community Board of Veterinary Specialization on nomination by the Honorary Members of the European Society of Veterinary Dermatology (ESVD) who are: Dr. George Muller, Dr. Robert Kirk, Dr. Peter Ihrke, Dr. Danny Scott, upon the following criteria. They:
- are initiators of veterinary dermatology in Europe;
- have contributed substantially to the development of veterinary dermatology in Europe by research, publications, and lectures;
- are uncontroversial for the majority of the ESVD members;
- are full or Founding members of the ESVD practising in Europe
- have at least 10 years of experience in veterinary dermatology;
- spend at least 60 per cent of their time in veterinary dermatology.

(b) specialists appointed "de facto", also defined in this general scheme, who have been appointed by the invited specialists.

The "de facto", appointed diplomates should fulfil the following criteria. They:
- have at least 7 years of experience in veterinary dermatology;
- spend at least 60 per cent of their time in veterinary dermatology;
- have published at least 3 original scientific articles in refereed journals as first author, and at least 3 additional articles as co-author excluding reviews.
- have presented original work at scientific meetings.
- are full or Founding members of the ESVD.

Selection will be made on the basis of a submitted cv including evidence of fulfilment of the above criteria, and also indicating how the candidates have achieved their expertise.

All ESVD full or Founding members will be invited to apply for "de facto" registration by the invited specialists in a letter which states the above mentioned requirements.

Full members of the ESVD may apply for "de facto" diplomate status before the 5th October, 1995.

Section 4.3
To qualify for membership, candidates shall meet the following criteria:

a) have a satisfactory moral and ethical standing in the profession;
b) be registered/licensed to practise veterinary medicine and surgery in the European Union, unless excused of this obligation by the Credentials Arm of the Education and Credentials’ Committee;
c) have successfully passed the Diploma (certifying) examination of the European College of Veterinary Dermatology, unless exempted of this obligation by the Education and Credentials’ Committee.

Section 4.4
Each individual who has successfully passed the qualification procedure of the College shall be designated Diplomate of the European College of Dermatology and shall be authorized to use the designation of Diplomate of the European College of Dermatology (Dip. or Dipl. ECVD: European Veterinary Specialist in Dermatology), with the exception of section 4.11 of this Constitution.

Section 4.5
Each Diplomate is expected to actively participate in the affairs of the College. Repeated, unexcused absences from the College-meetings may render a member subject to disciplinary.

Section 4.6
Each Diplomate is guided by scientific methods and evidence based medicine, which complies with animal welfare legislation. Each Diplomate shall also fulfil the re-evaluation requirements of
Section 4.7
Each Diplomate shall be required to keep records of his/her dermatological patients.

Section 4.8
Diplomates who cease to be actively involved for a period of more than two (2) consecutive years or the equivalent of two (2) years during a period of five (5) years, for reasons other than temporary or permanent suspension, are awarded Non-Practising Diplomate status. Active involvement implies spending at least 60 per cent of professional time in dermatology and attendance at the annual ESVD - ECVD congress. A Non-Practising Diplomate seeking to revert to full Diplomate status needs to satisfy the Credentials Committee. A Non-Practising Diplomate pays normal fees and may continue to play a full role, (including being able to vote) within the College.

Section 4.9
A Retired Diplomate is one who is of irrevocable Non-Practising status. Retired Diplomates maintain all privileges of Diplomates including advisory tasks, except the right to vote or hold office. They are excluded from article 4, sections 4.4, 4.5, 4.6, 4.7 of the Constitution of the ECVD. They are authorised to use the designation ‘Diplomate (retired)’. The Retired Diplomate is removed from the EBVS specialist register.

Section 4.10
Voluntary cessation of registration requires notice in writing to be received by the Secretary twelve months prior to the College's Annual General Meeting and will be published at the Annual General Meeting.

Section 4.11
Any Diplomate may be expelled, asked to resign or otherwise disciplined for non-professional or unethical conduct or other action against the best interest of the College by a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee of the ECVD, pending confirmation by the College at the next Annual General Meeting.

Section 4.12
The College may confer Honorary Membership status on persons who have made exceptional contributions to veterinary dermatology. Honorary Members shall have all the rights and privileges of Diplomates except the right to vote and hold office. They pay no fees. No more than five (5) per cent of the College’s membership may be made up of Honorary Members.

Section 4.13
The annual dues (Euro) of each active member for the following year shall be determined by the Annual General Meeting.

Organisation and Officers

Article 5
Section 5.1

The College shall be composed of all the Diplomates.

Section 5.2

The Diplomates will elect every three (3) years, by secret ballot, the President and five (5) Members. The outgoing President automatically becomes the Past-President.

The President, five (5) Members, and the Past-President will compose the Board of the College. In order to become elected as President, a candidate should have at least six (6) years’ experience as a member of the Board. Positions of Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, and Member (2), will be divided within the Board.

With the exception of the position of President, members may be elected to only one additional term for the same position.

Additional Diplomates, without a right to vote, may be co-opted as observer or advisor to the Executive Committee if the officers agree unanimously.

Annual General Meeting

Article 6

Section 6.1
A General Meeting of the Diplomates will be held each year.

Section 6.2
An Extraordinary General Meeting of the College can be called at any time by the Executive Committee, or shall be called by the Executive Committee at the written request of not less than 10% of the membership. The request should contain the explanation for such a meeting, and the subsequent Extraordinary Meeting should take place within a period of three months of receipt of the request. If not the responsible members are empowered to summon the Extraordinary Meeting themselves.

Section 6.3
Each active Diplomate has the right to vote. He/she has to be present at the Annual or Extraordinary General Meetings to do so, except in case of postal or electronic ballot (section 6.5). Each active Diplomate has one (1) vote.

Section 6.4
The quorum required for holding a meeting is at least 51% (fifty one) of the voting members of the College. Voting must be in person. The Executive Committee decides if the vote is to be taken orally or on paper. Votes can be: in favour, against or one can abstain. For all decisions, except as designated elsewhere, a simple majority of the voting members is sufficient.

Section 6.5
The Executive Committee can hold an electronic or postal ballot at any time outside the Annual General Meeting and Extraordinary General Meetings.
Section 6.6
The Secretary of the College has to keep the minutes of every Annual General Meeting. These records must be signed by the Chairman of the Annual General Meeting and the Secretary.

Amendments

Article 7
This CONSTITUTION may be amended at any Annual General Meeting by an affirmative two-thirds of the votes cast. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Secretary at least ninety (90) days before the meeting for appropriate review by the Board. Proposed amendments shall be distributed to the membership with a recommendation by the Officers, at least thirty (30) days prior to the next Annual Meeting and shall be brought to a vote of the Diplomates at that Meeting.

Dissolution of the College

Article 8
In the event of dissolution of the College, or the College losing its status as a non profit-making organisation, the distribution of all assets shall be determined by the Annual General Meeting, as far as possible consistent with the objectives of the College.

Bylaws

Article 9
The College shall make and can change Bylaws, which regulate subjects not or not sufficiently prescribed in this Constitution. A bylaw shall not contain any provisions which violate the law, the rules of the EBVS, or this Constitution.
EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF VETERINARY DERMATOLOGY

BYLAWS

10 September 2011

General Assembly (Annual General Meeting)

Article 1

Section 1.1
It is the duty of every member to attend the General Assembly (Annual General Meeting) at least once every two (2) years. If the active Diplomate has not attended the AGM for three consecutive years without previous dispensation of the Executive Committee, the registration as active Diplomate ceases by default.

Section 1.2
The Annual General Meeting is the senior legislative body of the College and has the following duties:

a) To determine and update the Constitution and Bylaws;
b) To elect the members of the Executive Committee (Board) of the College;
c) To approve formally the business conducted by the Board during the preceding year.
d) To act on business presented by the Board or as required by the Constitution.
e) To establish membership fees for the forthcoming year.
f) To act re the disciplining of Diplomates.

Officers

Article 2

Section 2.1
The Officers of the College shall be: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Past-President. Each term of office is three (3) years.

Section 2.2
Election of Members of the Board shall be held at the Annual General Meeting of the College, by written secret ballot. Written nominations must be received by the Executive Secretary at least three months prior to the annual General Meeting. Alternatively, nominations may be made from the floor.
Appointment to Officer positions (except that of the Past-President) is made by the President after consultation, subsequent to the election.

Duties of Officers
Article 3

Section 3.1 President
The PRESIDENT shall preside at the meetings of the College, preserve order, regulate debates, appoint Committees not otherwise provided for, announce results of elections and perform all other duties legitimately appertaining to his/her office.

Section 3.2 Vice-President
The VICE-PRESIDENT shall perform the duties of the President in his/her absence or inability to serve. The Vice-President shall normally succeed to the presidency should that office fall vacant.

Section 3.3 Secretary
The SECRETARY shall attend to the correspondence of the College, keep and publish lists annually of all categories of Diplomate, keep Minutes of the College meetings which shall be the property of the College and accessible to ECVD Diplomates at all reasonable times and places, and perform the usual duties of a Secretary. The Secretary shall forward the Annual Report of the College to the EBVS before the 15th January of the following year. The Secretary shall normally succeed to the Vice-Presidency should that office fall vacant.

Section 3.4 Treasurer
The TREASURER shall advise the College on all financial matters. He/she shall arrange for the safekeeping of all funds, draw vouchers, pay bills and expenses, and submit a written and audited financial statement to all members annually. He/she shall keep full and accurate accounts, containing a record of all monies received and expended, which shall be the property of the College and open to the inspection of members of the Executive Committee, fiscal authorities, and Diplomates authorized by the Executive Committee at all reasonable times and places.

Section 3.5 Past-President
The PAST-PRESIDENT shall advise the President.

Section 3.6
Vacancies occurring on the Board shall be filled by election of a member at the next Annual General Meeting. Any member elected to fill a vacancy shall hold the office until expiration of the term in which the vacancy occurred.

Committees

Article 4

Section 4.1 Executive Committee of the College:
The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE (BOARD) of the College shall consist of the Officers, the Past-President, and the two Members. The Board shall consider all the business and policies pertaining to the affairs of the College. It, or its designated Committees, shall receive all applications, conduct examinations and certify recommendations for Diplomate status in the College. It shall consider and act upon charges against Diplomates for alleged offences against the Constitution and Bylaws of the College or charges of unprofessional conduct and shall have the authority to recommend the expulsion of a Diplomate for grievous offences. It shall appoint standing Committees, select the time and place of meetings and determine the fees for application, examinations, registrations and other fees. It shall direct the management of funds held by the College.

Section 4.2  Education and Credentials Committee:
Each arm of the EDUCATION AND CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE shall be composed of three (3) members, one of whom will serve as chairperson. A member of the Executive Committee will serve as co-chair. The committees and the chairpersons will be appointed by the President, after discussions with the members of the Executive Committee. The Board member acting as co-Chair will represent these committees at Board and at the Annual General Meeting.

The duties of the Education Arm of the Committee are, but are not limited to, the following matters.

- It is responsible for setting criteria for the standard residency programmes and alternate route programmes, for approving the programmes and their sponsors and for monitoring each resident's progress through the receipt of regular reports.
- The Education Arm of the Committee shall maintain lists of approved residency programmes and approve directors, supervisors, advisors, mentors and current residents.
- It will document and maintain detailed requirements for residency programmes that are necessary for European College of Veterinary Dermatology approval.
- It will receive the required periodic reports from Resident Supervisors of Resident training programmes on the annual progress of each candidate in every Dermatology Residency.

All resident training programme directors may submit questions, in accordance with instructions from the Chairperson of the Examination Committee, by 31st December each year, to the Examination Committee for consideration for use in future Diploma examinations.

The duties of the Credentials Arm of the Committee are, but are not limited to, the following.

- It will establish guidelines to assist applicants applying to sit the Diploma examination;
- It will receive, review, and approve the candidacy of applicants;
- It will forward the names of applicants who have satisfied the credentials requirements to the Examination Committee;
- It will ensure that every Diplomate reaccredits every five (5) years after entering the ECVD, by assessing their ongoing commitment to publishing, scientific endeavour and training.
- It will receive the details of each standard residency programme and alternate route residency programme, in the form of an initial report with update and re-examination every five (5) years. The Credentials arm of the Committee, acting for the College, will attest the adequacy of each programme when it approves the report.

Section 4.3  Examination Committee:
The EXAMINATION COMMITTEE shall normally consist of five (5) members appointed by the President after discussions with the members of the Board. Normally, an invited pathologist will be appointed in addition to the five (5) other members. The President shall be an ex officio member of this committee.
The Examination Committee is responsible for the preparation and administration of the Diploma examination.

Results of examinations shall be forwarded by the Chairperson of the Examination Committee to the President of the College, or his/her deputy, with recommendations regarding the granting of diplomas. The examination results will form part of the Annual Report to the European Board of Veterinary Specialization and will indicate the number passing the examination for the first, versus the second or third attempt etc.

Section 4.4. Nominating Committee:
The NOMINATING COMMITTEE shall be composed of three (3) members appointed by the President after discussions with members of the Board. The Committee shall prepare a list of candidates for election to the Executive Committee of the College, after a written call for candidates to all Diplomates at least 6 months before the elections. Candidates should be known by the Diplomates two (2) months before the elections. The Committee will report to the College and carry out the election at its Annual General Meeting.

Section 4.5
Members of Committees will receive no indemnification.

Article 5

Section 5.1. Qualifications to sit the Diploma examination:
Candidates should give evidence of satisfactory completion of an approved residency (standard or alternate), preceded by a clinical internship of at least one year or approved equivalent experience in practice. The Resident Supervisor/Mentor shall certify in writing that the candidate has satisfactorily completed the period of training required by the College.

A supervisor shall have no more than two (2) residents. In exceptional cases, the Education and Credentials Committee can allow three (3) residents, for a restricted period.

In addition, candidates shall meet the requirements for written reports which are:
- Two case reports in the style of those in the Journal “Veterinary Dermatology” must be submitted to credentials committee, not earlier than the final year of the residency. Each must be no longer than 2,500 words in length and there is no species restriction. The Residency supervisor may help in one of these but resident must sign a declaration that the second has only been corrected for English grammar and spelling
- At least two published papers are required. These must not have been published before the residency was begun. At least one of the two must be a research-based publication reporting original material beyond that of a literature review or a case report. The second paper may be a case report. Both must be published in peer-reviewed English language publications, such as those found on the PubMed database. The Resident must be first author on one of these. Proof of acceptance from the editor is as good as the paper being published

Section 5.2. Examination
The examination should include:
- a written section of long and short answer essay-type questions about basic and applied aspects of dermatology and related disciplines
- multiple choice questions
- a histopathology section
- questions based around images

The examination will be organized once a year, when there are suitable candidates.
The examination shall be taken in English only; the use of language (non-medical) dictionaries during examinations is permitted. Candidates may be assisted by officially registered (non-medical) translators during the examination.

The candidate shall submit the credential and examination fees, which shall be determined annually, at the time of application to the credentials arm of the Education and Credentials Committee.

Candidates must normally pass the examination within eight (8) years of being notified that they have satisfied the credentials process. The candidate may normally sit the examination on a total of four (4) occasions only during the course of these eight (8) years.

The parts of the examination may be passed separately.

The names of candidates who pass the examination will be forwarded to the President by the Chairperson of the Examination Committee.

Further details of the requirements for the training programmes, admission, application procedure, and the Entrance (Qualifying) examination is available from the relevant authorities, and in the relevant documentation, of the College.

Finances

Article 6

Section 6.1
The College is a non-profit making organisation. The expenses of the College shall be met through various sources of income.
- Annual dues
- Donations from companies and international organisations.
- Income from educational meetings organized by the College, including the European Society of Veterinary Dermatology – European College of Veterinary Dermatology Annual Congress.
- Investment income

Section 6.2
The annual dues (Euro) of each active member for the following years shall be confirmed by the Annual General Meeting after recommendation by the Board. Dues are payable on December 1st for the following year. Members shall be adjudged delinquent if they are one (1) year in arrears, and may be voted for removal by the membership if two (2) years have elapsed without payment. Retired Diplomates and Honorary Members of the College shall not be required to pay dues. All other categories of Diplomates, including Non-Practicing Diplomates, are required to pay dues.

Section 6.3
The financial year begins on the first (1) of January and ends on the thirty-first (31) of December of each year.

The accounts of the last financial year and the budget of the following fiscal year shall be submitted annually, by the Treasurer or his/her nominee, for the approval of the Annual General Meeting.

Meetings
Article 7

Section 7.1
The Annual General Meeting of the College will be held during the Annual Meeting of the European Society of Veterinary Dermatology - European College of Veterinary Dermatology or at some other appropriate meeting agreed upon by the Board.

Section 7.2
The Executive Committee shall meet at least once annually, in person or otherwise, between the dates of successive Annual General Meetings, when judged appropriate by the President.

Amendments

Article 8
These BYLAWS may be amended at any Annual General Meeting by an affirmative two-thirds of the votes cast. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the Secretary at least ninety (90) days before the meeting, for appropriate review by the Board. Proposed amendments shall be distributed to the membership, with a recommendation by the Officers, at least thirty (30) days before the next Annual General Meeting and shall be brought to a vote of Diplomates at that meeting.

Appeal against Adverse Decisions

Article 9

Section 9.1
Appeal against adverse decisions by the College include, but are not limited to:
- denial of approval or suspension of a training (residency) programme
- denial of adequacy of an individual's credentials
- denial of the granting of a Diploma to an individual
- temporary or permanent suspension of a Diplomate
In the event of an adverse decision by the College, the Secretary shall advise the affected person and/or the Dean or other relevant person in the institution or practice organisation in which the affected training programme is located, and of the procedure for appealing against the adverse decision.

The College charges a fee, payable in advance, to cover the administrative expenses of any appeal. The fee must be deposited in the bank of the College and a receipt for this sent by the appellant, at the time of submitting the other documentation of the appeal.

Section 9.2
Any Dean or other relevant person in an institution or practice organisation, who wishes to appeal against the decision on the denial or withdrawal of approval of a training programme must do so within sixty (60) days of the date of the adverse notification. The request for appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary and shall include a statement of the grounds for reconsideration and documentation in support of the petition.

The Secretary shall notify the President of the College and the Chairperson of the Education and Credentials Committee. The President shall appoint a committee of three (3) Diplomates who are not Board Members or members of the Education and Credentials Committee to serve as an Appeals Committee. The Chairperson of the Education and Credentials Committee shall submit a written statement, with accompanying appropriate documentation, to the Appeals Committee indicating the reason(s) for denial of approval or continuation of the training programme. The Appeals Committee shall make and communicate a decision to the appellant within sixty (60) days of appointment of the committee.

Section 9.3
Any candidate who wishes to appeal against the decision on his/her application for eligibility to sit the examination must do so within sixty (60) days of the postmarked date of their notification. The request for appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary and shall include a statement of the grounds for reconsideration and documentation in support of the petition.

The Secretary shall notify the President of the College and the Chairperson of the Education and Credentials Committee. The President shall appoint a committee of three (3) Diplomates who are not Board Members or members of the Education and Credentials Committee to serve as an Appeals Committee within thirty (30) days of a request for an appeal, indicating the reason(s) for rejecting the candidate. The complete dossier of the candidate will be provided for the Appeals Committee to review.

The Appeals Committee shall make and communicate a decision to the appellant within sixty (60) days of appointment of the Committee.

Section 9.4
Any candidate who wishes to appeal against the decision on failure in the examination must do so within sixty (60) days of the postmarked date of their notification. The request for appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary and shall include a statement of the grounds for reconsideration and documentation in support of the petition.

The Secretary shall notify the President of the College and the Chairperson of the Examination Committee. The President shall appoint a committee of three (3) Diplomates who are not Board Members or members of the Examination Committee to serve as an Appeals Committee within thirty (30) days of notice of an appeal. The Chairperson of the Examination Committee shall submit the examination and scores of the candidate, the complete list of scores of all candidates for that examination, and a statement of the criteria used for the Committee's recommendation for pass and fail to the Appeals Committee indicating the reason(s) for rejecting the candidate.

The Appeals Committee shall make and communicate a decision to the appellant within sixty (60) days of appointment of the Committee.

Section 9.5
Any Diplomate, who wishes to appeal against a temporary or permanent suspension decision of the Executive Committee, must do so within 60 days of the postmarked date of the adverse notification. The request for appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary and shall include a statement of the grounds for reconsideration and documentation in support of the petition.

The Secretary shall notify the President of the College. The Executive Committee shall appoint a committee of three Diplomates who are not officers or members of the Executive Committee to serve as an Appeals Committee within 30 days of notice of an appeal. The President of the College shall submit a written statement to the Appeals Committee indicating the reason(s) for rejecting the candidate. The Appeals Committee shall meet and return a verdict within 60 days of its appointment.

Section 9.6
After completion of the appropriate procedure as described above, the affected party, if not satisfied with the final decision rendered by the ECVD Appeals Committee, may request mediation by the European Board of Veterinary Specialisation (EBVS), as laid out in the Policies and Procedures document of that organisation. The President of the ECVD will supply documentation in support of the College’s decision, and any further documentation requested by EBVS, which will inform him/her of their decision subsequently. The decision of the EBVS is final.

Section 9.7
A list of any complaints and the area to which they pertain will be part of the Annual Report of the College to EBVS.

Complaints against a Diplomate of the College

Article 10

Section 10.1
A complaint against a Diplomate of the College must be made in writing to the Secretary of the College. The President shall appoint a committee of three (3) Diplomates who are not Board members to serve as an Investigations’ Committee and the person making the complaint notified of such referral. The Investigations’ Committee will communicate directly with the complainant, with a copy of the response being sent to EBVS. A tally of the number of complaints will be part of the Annual Report of the College to EBVS.

Section 10.2
Only those grievances not resolved by the College will be referred to EBVS.

Section 10.3
A list of the number of complaints (if any), against whom and in which area(s) they pertain will be part of the Annual Report of the College to EBVS.

Re-evaluation of Diplomates

Article 11

Section 11.1
All Diplomates (including Founding and Non-Practising) will be re-evaluated for their prerequisites as membership of the College every five (5) years after their admittance, beginning in January 2002, as directed by EBVS.

Section 11.2
The standard procedure is carried out under a credit point system. The completed documentation shall be submitted for assessment in confidence to the Chair of the Credentials Committee as required.

Honorary Membership

Article 12
Section 12.1
Candidates for Honorary Membership should not be veterinarians who could qualify for Diplomate status in the usual manner. This category of membership will only be awarded in exceptional circumstances.

Section 12.2
Nominations for Honorary Membership must be made in writing to the Secretary by two (2) Diplomates in good standing at least 120 days prior to the annual meeting and include appropriate supportive biographical and bibliographical data. The general membership shall be notified of any nominations for Honorary Membership and any member shall receive copies of the supportive data on request. Election of an Honorary Member shall be accomplished by a minimum three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Board and by a minimum three-fourths (3/4) vote of the membership in attendance cast by secret ballot at the Annual General Meeting of the College.

Section 12.3
No more than five (5) per cent of the College’s membership may be made up of Honorary Members.